Glen Road School Funds Turned Down

A tight-fister Town Meeting last night turned down the request of the Elementary School Building Committee for additional funds to construct the Glen Road School.

Charges of "luxury school", extravagance and unnecessary frills were leveled at the proposed school. Members of the Baldwin Civic Club with William Widger, Board of Health Member Gus Walker, and Assessor Fred Calabrese, as principal speaker, actively opposed the building of the school as it is now planned. Selectman Donald Kidder, also read a prepared speech, saying, "We should stop the building of this school now to serve warning on architects and builders in the future that we want economical schools in Wilmington". Selectman Wavie Drew wished to go on record as seconding his remarks.

Acting as spokesman for the building committee, Edwin Hanke faced a barrage of questions and accusations from the Meeting which filled almost to capacity the High School Auditorium. Calmly, with answers to all the charges of unnecessary expense, he gave comparable figures, showing how the committee had planned to save money on maintenance over the next few years by the choice of materials used in the school.

When Mr. Calabrese compared the plans to the North Reading school plans which he said his group had access to for two weeks. Mr. Hanke remarked that he thought that it was "pretty sneaky" of them to have and use the plans the committee had been trying to see, and not show the plans to the committee.

Published reports of extravagances in the school had aroused the anger of some of the attendants of the meeting to such a pitch that even when shown to be false by Mr. Hanke, the Town refused to accept the request and turned down the motion. 100 to 298. What action will be taken by the committee. (If it does not resign), is not clear at this time.

Sale of town owned land to the Wilmington Ford Sales passed 292 to 5 after charges were hurled at the Town fathers of selling the land at too low a price. Other objectors felt that the land should have gone out on bid. Re-zoning the same area brought no discussion and was approved unanimously.

Heated debate again broke out on the housing for the elderly project. The Wilmington Housing Authority asked for a zoning by-law change which would allow erection of Federal or State aided housing projects in the Town. The planning board recommended amending the change to conform with objections of abutters to piece of property proposed for the project on Burlington Ave.

A group of residents of the area led a strong opposition to the proposal, and were joined by members of the Baldwin Civic Club.

A standing vote was taken and the article passed, 167 to 74. As Moderator Simon Cutter motioned to adjourn the meeting, Carl Marcy of Burlington Ave., challenged the vote and asked for a written ballot. Mr. Cutter demanded his basis for such an action and was told that Mr. Marcy did not think the tellers count was accurate as it was taken too fast. Mr. Cutter ruled that the vote should be counted standing again and this time the article passed, 185 to 71.

EAST WILMINGTON ASSOCIATION FOR RETARDED CHILDREN, INC. PRESENTING FILM

On December 3, in the Wilmington high school auditorium at 8:00 p.m. the East Middlesex Association for Retarded Children, Inc. is presenting, as a public service, an outstanding and informative film called "Child Alone," which graphically portrays in color, the tremendous progress that has been made in behalf of retarded children, and the work which still remains to be accomplished.

The film was produced by the Massachusetts Association for Retarded Children and was filmed entirely in Massachusetts. The narrator of the film is Mr. Charles Ashley, well known radio announcer at station WEEI, Boston. The story in this picture is true and uplifting because it carries a message of hope to those who are confronted with the challenging problem of retardation.

We, of the East Middlesex Association, would consider it a privilege to share this film with you.

ing for comfort and luxuries, which is not in line with the thinking of some other countries.

V. F. W. DUGOUT DOINGS

And A Happy Thanksgiving To You

At the last regular meeting of the post, Comrade Charles McCann was elected to the office of Junior Vice-Commander. The post joins me in wishing him a happy tenure of office.

As it now stands right now, the chairs are as follows: Eugene Brown, Commander; John Demers, Senior Vice; Charles McCann, Jr., Vice Fred Kleynen - Chaplain, Thomas O'Connors - Quartermaster. Appointed by Commander Brown were: William Simmons to the role of Adjutant and Jack Madigan to the position of OOD. 1958 dues are now payable and it is the desire of the Commander to reach 100 percent enrollment by the 1st of January. Contact Tom O'Connors or Brownie and pick up your dues card.

Congratulations to Herbie Nason on this new job as Service Manager at Fred Cains garage. Glad to see Bill Berry at the last meeting. He hasn't got the chop-ers in yet but if he will drop in to see me at the N.C.O. club during noon hours, I'll see that he will get his soft diet lunches. Have all you members had your cars serviced yet? Tom's Tydol service station will take care of that for you. And a little plug for the popular Hal Foley - he will take care of your problems for the holiday season in every respect from gifts of glassware to matching decanter sets. The Shamrock Drive-in has a beautiful display of Libby-Owens cut glassware and what you don't see, ask for.

Plans are underway for the annual Christmas party for the children and will be under the direction of John Demers. Tentative plans call for candy, tonic, cake and movies, along with Santa Claus giving the presents. In your dues envelopes that you will receive shortly, you will find a stamped card regarding information from you as to how many children you will be bringing along. Fill the card in complete and mail as soon as possible so as to facilitate the program.

The next Social will be held Saturday, December 21, at 8:30 p.m. A surprise menu will be in store for you that, attend, along with a door prize and some worthwhile raffles. Plan now to attend and enjoy in an old-fashioned get-together party. Hank Filippone, Chairman of the new building committee, requests a meeting of the board members at 8:00 p.m. Thursday, December 12, as the regular meeting starts at 8:30, it is urged that all the members be present promptly at 8 p.m.

The kiddoes movies held on Saturdays are still not being attended to capacity. Members are urged to take advantage of this program along with the public and give their children an enjoyable afternoon. This movie matinee is a sincere effort of the post to provide a bit of Community service to the townsfolk of Wilmington and citizens of the town are invited to share in it. In reality, we are doing three hours of baby sitting on a busy Saturday afternoon for only 15 cents per child, and the children are well taken care of. Plan now to let your child attend next Saturday noon. Look elsewhere in this paper for the program Saturday.

V.F.W. Movie Matinee
The movie for Saturday, November 30, will be as follows: "Kazan", starring Stephen Dunne and Lois Maxwell, along with Chapter No. 8 of "Perils of the Royal Mounted" plus comedy and cartoon. Movie starts at 2:00 p.m. and is generally over at 4:00 p.m.

WHICH HORSE DID YOU PICK?

Everybody likes horses. Some of my neighbors seem to spend most of their time and energy and money) trying to figure out which of several horses is going to "come in."

What would the history of our country be without horses? Horses pulled those covered wagons across the plains, and then pulled the ploughs that turned the prairies in wheat and corn fields.

Paul Revere is one of the great names in our history, but suppose he had walked to Lexington and Concord. A city and a beach is named "Revere", but who even knows the name of his horse?

In the sixth chapter of the book of Revelation, a number of horses are named. Each one is "a horse of a different color."

There is the red horse of anger, and the yellow horse of weakness. There is the pale horse of indifference and so on down the list.

Think over the possible colors of the horse you pick and then ask yourself, "What color am I backing?" One of the horses mentioned in that chapter is the white horse. How about that for a choice of color?

Whiteness: Cleanliness of life; Purity of motive; High ideals. May the white horse be your choice.

Thursday is Thanksgiving Day!

It is our Oldest Holiday. Dating back to 1622 when the Pilgrims set aside a day of thanks to God for good Harvest and for having survived in a rugged country.

That was 336 years ago, and at that time, enough to eat, a roof, over their heads and their friendship with the local Indians were enough to be thankful for.

We at Chapin Nichols have so many things to give thanks for.

We are blessed with the finest customers in the world.

We are thankful for their friendship that allows us to serve them.

We are grateful that we have outstanding employees to keep their friendship.

We are happy that we are in a business that adds to the well being of these friends.

We are thankful for their tolerance with our shortcomings. It is with the greatest humility that we give thanks for all these and many more, that we have not the space to tell you about.

May we wish you all the good things of life and the blessings of health and happiness.

Thank you for giving us so much to be thankful for.

Best regards,

NEW TYPE Concrete

This new-type concrete road will last 50 years and more.

Drive it on America's new Interstate System highways

New-type, sound-conditioned concrete will still be fun to drive in '75

Not a "thump" to be heard on this continuous-laid concrete. It's almost like riding above the pavement, instead of on it. Sound-conditioned concrete has no joints... only tiny, sawed cushion spaces. You skim over them and don't know it! "Air-entrainment" prevents surface roughening, keeps concrete smooth. Laid flat, new-type concrete stays flat and will last 50 years and more.

The Interstate System is planned for the traffic of 1975... when concrete laid today will still be "new" and fun to drive.

Built-in safety for Massachusetts highways

The grainy texture of new-type concrete resists skids even when wet. No unevenness, no "fighting the wheel." It reflects light, too. You see up to 4 times better at night on light-colored concrete than on a dark surface.

1958 PONTIAC FEATURES ALL NEW BODY; 16 MODELS IN 4 SERIES; 88 NEW FEATURES

Sixteen all-new models in four series - headed by a "dream car" series of two family sports-type cars - are presented by Pontiac in 1958. General Motors' Golden Jubilee year.

A new body, new chassis, new "Tempest 395" V-8 engine, new optional equipment and a new Bonneville series of family size "dream cars" mark what the division calls "the boldest advance in 50 years."

"These bold new cars are both a tribute to GM's Golden Jubilee and our 50th Anniversary," S. E. Knudsen, GM Vice President and General Manager of Pontiac Motor Division, said in announcing the new cars.

"Fifty years ago America's pioneer motorists welcomed the new Oakland, predecessor car to Pontiac. But outside of having wheels, engine and a body of sorts, the 1908 Oakland bore no resemblance to the sleek 1958 Pontiacs we will present in our dealers' showrooms November 9. These cars are lower, longer, wider and combine high performance and comfort with high style and luxurious interiors," Knudsen said.

In addition to the top-of-the-line Bonneville convertible and sport coupe, Pontiac offers other new innovations for '58. Among them are a convertible in the lowest priced Chieftain line, air ride suspension as an option on all models, along with improved fuel injection, introduced by Pontiac last year.

The new "Tempest 395" V-8 engine is bigger than ever, with displacement increased from 347 to 370 cubic inches, and designed to deliver power where most needed - in the traffic range.

Pontiac engineers list 88 new features in the 1958 models and 135 separate safety features. Striking "New Direction" styling accentuates the car's longer, lower, wider look. The low, horizontal grille is topped by dual twin head lamps and rises above the heavy bumper, which incorporates massive parking and signal lamps. A new gold, rectangular crest featuring a "V" on a grooved background above the name, Pontiac, in block-style lettering, is positioned in the left side of the grille. Delta wing ornaments ride atop each front fender with twin wind-splits continuing along the fender.

The missile-type moldings sweep back to concave flares in the rear fender and frame distinctive series markings. The Bonneville has, in addition, four simulated front fender louvers.

From the rear the 1958 Pontiacs will be immediately recognizable by dual twin tail lamps above oval, chromed, back-up lamp ports, and the simply styled trunk lid bears chrome handles on each side of the superbly fashioned name plate.

In addition to the five-passenger Bonneville convertible and the sport coupe, Pontiac has for 1958, the Star Chief series consisting of two and four-door Catalinas, a four-door sedan with slim center pillar, and a custom Safari station wagon. The Super Chief line includes two- and four-door Catalinas and a slim pillar, four-door sedan. The Chieftain series is led by the convertible, new in this line; two and four-door Catalinas, two and four-door slim pillar sedans, and a two-seat and a three-seat, four-door station wagon.

A total of 21 solid colors and 56 recommended two-tone paint combinations are offered, some in the new acrylic lacquers, while interiors are color-matched in fabric and leather.

On 122" and 124" wheelbases, the new Pontiacs are as much as 4.5 inches lower in height, are 2.2 inches wider and as much as 8.7 inches longer overall. Passenger leg room has been increased by 4.5 inches, ample head room is retained and luggage space is enlarged.

A new sculptured instrument panel has key instruments grouped before the driver for quick, safe reading through the deeply recessed, two spoke steering wheel. A non-glare instrument panel paint protects against glare.

Leading an exceptional parade of optional equipment for the new cars is air ride suspension, new for passenger cars in the middle price range, which gives an ever-level ride regardless of load or road conditions. Pontiac's fuel injection, introduced last year, has been improved and tailored for the new, bigger engine. Super Hydra-Matic transmission, power brakes, power steering, power-operated windows, four-way power seat with a new "memo-matic" control device, which returns it to a pre-selected setting, are other extras, as is a new "safeguard" speedometer, which buzzes when a set speed is exceeded; a new "safe-t-track" differential which eliminates rear wheel slip; a new split front seat back lock to prevent seat tilt on sudden stops; a new door lock warning lamp, and a new combination car and portable transistorized radio.

Notable too, is the availability of radio rear seat speakers on convertible as well as station wagons, a special option on Chieftain models and a new adjustable inside sun visor. Clearly identified accessory controls are conveniently arranged on the instrument panel within easy reach.

What attracts industry to a region? A Business Week article says this: "While a company expanding into another area will probably first scan labor, raw materials, markets and power potentials, the company - all things being equal - is apt to settle for the community where taxes are the lowest."

Frame house construction provides hollow walls. The National Lumber Manufacturers Association points out two of the advantages of this feature: space within the walls for heating ducts or pipes, plumbing and wiring, with easy access to them; and a maximum air space, which provides good insulation in itself or gives plenty of room for sufficient insulating material to be effective in extreme climates.

NOW HE MAKES ROPE

Native ingenuity coupled with a yen for making his own sailboat fabrics launched a Rockport man on a career as a cordage manufacturer and brought a new industry to his town.

He is Paul C. Woodbury, an M.I.T. graduate who has just been officially cited for his enterprise by Commissioner John T. Burke on behalf of the Massachusetts Department of Commerce.

Two years ago while driving through Chelsea, he noticed a piece of waste textile material hanging out of a burlap bag in a salvage yard. At examining the material the thought occurred to him, he says, that it could possibly be used for making twine or rope, providing it was a rot-proof synthetic. It was. Upon inquiring, he found he could purchase it in quantity at the right price.

Soon he was in business. Although he had never been inside a cordage mill and was told that the manufacture of cord was a guarded secret, he put his talents to full use. He made a study of textile machines and "figured out for myself just what was needed to assemble a machine for making twine and rope."

He purchased the basic parts and then built the machine to his own specifications. It worked. For a time, in the beginning, several manufacturing problems beset him. But gradually, through the trial and error method, he overcame them.

Originally he had a helper.

Today, he employs six persons and has plans for plant expansion. The new business is known as The Rockport Twine and Rope.

He already has been forced to move to a larger quarters. His present plant is a two & a half story building at 13 Railroad Avenue, Rockport, Mass.

A sailing enthusiast since his youth, Mr. Woodbury told Commissioner Burke recently, at the Massachusetts Department of Commerce offices, 334 Boylston Street, Boston, he first got interested in "doing for myself" when he decided he could make a sail for his boat "just as good as any I could buy and a lot cheaper."

With a fundamental knowledge of filament yarns, he experimented with rope making. That led him into his present business.

Trying something new is old hat with Mr. Woodbury. After taking a degree in civil engineering from M.I.T. in 1927, he entered the construction field. Just before World War II and without any previous experience, he purchased an old schooner and personally converted it into a fishing dragger. During the war he operated it with a five man crew.

"There is very little a man cannot do if he is willing to work hard enough on any subject he has in mind", says Mr. Woodbury.

THE ROOT OF THE MATTER

You have probably seen pictures of the dwarfed trees of Japan. A fully grown tree, perhaps thirty years old, will be no more than seven or eight inches in height. It will be perfect in every detail, but every detail is in miniature.

I understand that these dwarfed trees are grown from the seeds of ordinary trees, and would have reached full size, but for one fact: their roots are kept from growing. Tightly bound and starved, they know no larger home than a tiny flower pot.

So the tree does not grow. I remember a rose bush that was set out in a shallow tray of earth. It drooped and shriveled, and its buds failed to open. For a rose bush needs room for its roots to reach out, and find food.

When this rose bush was transplanted into a larger pot, with an abundance of good earth, it sprang back to life, and bloomed.

Roots must go down before the branches can go up.

I have read that the root system of a tree or shrub must be practically as large as its branch and leaf system.

So it is with the human soul.

We must have depth or roots, grounded in the Word of God and prayer. Otherwise we live stunted lives.

Remember what the First Psalm says of the life that has sent down deep roots? "He bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper."

Very much interested in Aerography during the midshipman training cruise to South America aboard the USS Iowa were Midshipmen Joel Snow, Don Rain, and Pat Flood.

"Old Ironsides," the American frigate that won her nickname because British shot failed to penetrate her sides in the War of 1812, was built of oak, cedar and pine.

Did you know that it is perfectly possible to get twelve pieces of luggage - one two-sulter, two Pullman cases, two wardrobe cases, two overnight bags, four vanity cases and a golf bag - in the larger trunk of the 1958 Pontiac?

SAFETY TIP: If you must turn around on a highway, do it this way: Find a driveway - drive past, and back into it, says the Triple-A. Then you'll be facing the highway and you can see when it's safe to move. Never back up on a highway if you can avoid it.

Safe-T-Track Differential:
A non-slip Safe-T-Track differential, designed to deliver the power to the wheel with traction, is a new Pontiac accessory for 1958. It is most useful in snow, ice, sand or mud and also prevents spinning of the free wheel on rough roads and non-uniform surfaces.

THE YOUTH OF TOWN JOINED BOOSTER TORCHLIGHT PARADE

In an unprecedented display of enthusiasm, the young of the town answered the call of the Boosters, on Thursday, the 21st. We asked all who could, to meet at the Senior High school cafeteria, to help in the distribution of Booster buttons, and membership cards. The football team responded to the last available man, as well as cheer leaders, band majorettes, and student body.

The parade started almost promptly at the designated time, with the police cruiser manned by officers Fuller and Ellsworth, in the lead. The entourage left the school grounds, travelled Church street to the center, turned toward the Silver Lake district, via the Main street and thence along Jones avenue, to Salem street, where it more or less got down to the business of the evening.

The various captains headed for their appointed districts, and the results began to show themselves shortly thereafter. Every car came back, the occupants with reports of the fine spirit in which they were received. The public in general showed their response with the generosity displayed in the returns.

It looks, right now, as tho this season of athletics in Wilmington will not go unnoticed. The Boosters are fast reaching their goal, which is to furnish these fine spirited boys and girls with an appropriate reward for the season they have turned in, in the way of courage, and the will to win.

There will be another meeting of the Boosters in the near future, of which the public will be advised, and to which all members are invited.

The results of Thursday's drive for membership were in the neighborhood of four hundred and seventy-five dollars; surely something to crow about. The Boosters plan a cake sale for the near future, to be held for the benefit of the night school attendance, and pending the permission of the authorities of that function.

Some of the memberships to date are the following: Mrs. Munroe, Mr. Bob Hastings, Mr. Irving Storms, Mrs. B. McCormack, Mr. Walter Casey, Mrs. Walter Casey, Mrs. Fairfield, Mrs. Connie Phillips, Mr. J. Amaro, Mrs. J. Amaro, Mr. George Dyas, Mrs. George Dyas, Mrs. Rooney, Mr. Rooney, Mrs. Bob Hastings, Miss Pat Cotter, Miss Carol Randall, Miss Bonnie Hooper, Mrs. M. Butt, Miss Jeanne Marshall, Miss Joan Butt, William Fay W. Fairfield, Coach Fred Ballissimo, Billy Johnson Mr. Munroe, Miss Joan Amaro, Warren McFeeters, Mr. R. McFeeters, Hugh Casey, Neill McCormack, Hughie McCormack.

There are a great many names to be added to this ever growing list, which will be continued in next week's paper, as owing to curtailment of space, it would not be possible to list them all together.

COMMITMENT COMMUNION SERVICE AT METHODIST CHURCH, SUNDAY, DEC. 1, 9:15 AND 11 A.M.

Sunday, December 1, has been established as Commitment Sunday, by the General Conference of the Methodist Church. The local Methodist Church will observe the day as part of the monthly communion service. The Rev. Richard E. Harding will have for his communion meditation "Drinking is a Moral Issue."

During the service individuals will be given an opportunity to pledge themselves to the statement: "I recognize Commitment Day, as an anniversary which gives me an opportunity to strengthen the decision for total abstinence which I have previously made."

I therefore renew this Commitment as part of my witness on this day," or to he following statement: "I have this date made the following Commitment: The Lord Jesus being my helper, I commit myself to the principle and practice of total abstinence from alcoholic beverages. For me this is another step in my Christian Growth.

Thus I become a more effective witness for Christ and the Church." Families will be given a Family Covenant Card stating "Because we believe that the use of alcoholic beverages is harmful to human personalities and society, we, the members of this family circle, God helping us, hereby commit ourselves to total abstinence, and dedicate our home to creative fellowship and Christian Service."

Members of the Youth Division of the Church School will attend the 9:15 a.m. service, as young people are especially urged to participate in the commitment communion service.

As My Garden Sleeps

By Mari Gold

With Thanksgiving coming up this week, our gardens will probably take a back seat, as everyone will be too busy to think about them. I wonder how many gardeners realize that our first county agent was an Indian. This was Squanto, the Indian who taught the Pilgrims to plant maize (corn). He showed them how to catch fish and plant the fish along with the corn seed, thus making the fish our first fertilizer. This is why Squanto is known as our first county agent.

For folks who really like gardening there is always something to be done. The real gardener takes care of his garden in late fall so that the plants will reach the winter season in healthy condition, thus insuring a good start next spring. Winter protection is something which is quite generally misunderstood. We do not use mulch to keep plants warm, but to keep them cold. Sudden changes in temperature causes the ground to heave and break the tiny roots. Hardwood leaves such as oaks, take a long time to decay so they are best for mulching. They lie loose during the winter season. Other leaves such as Maples pack a wet heavy mass which excludes, smothers the plants and induces decay. All protection should be applied when the ground is well frozen. The ground must freeze a couple of inches deep, so that it won't thaw out after you apply the mulch.

Most evergreen plants can not stand complete covering, place a row of stakes or a ring of poultry netting close about the plant so that the ground can be covered. Some exotic plants must be covered with a bushel basket turned upside down, over the plant. Some of our smaller evergreens such as Daphne, Scotch Heather or any small seedlings may be cared for in this way. New plantings of evergreens, especially if close to a building should still be watered. As planted close to the building, they don't get as much rain as they would if in the open. Take a shovel and dig down around the plant. If the earth seems dry, water and water well. Before applying a mulch, the ground must be soaked to a depth of two feet. The results will repay you for your efforts.

Any seeds which you have collected may be placed in a paper packet and put in a glass jar or tin box so that they will be kept dry and protected from mice. It is well to conduct a monthly examination of stored roots, bulbs, etc. Watch for shriveling from being too dry or rotting from being too moist. If they are sprouting, move them to a cooler place.

Our house plants should be looking better by now as they should be used to being inside by this time. There is no hard and fast rule for growing house plants, but I hope the suggestions I make, in this column will help you have better plants. First, none of us can stand the cool temperature in our house which the plant would like, so this is one strike against the poor plant. Second, they like a moist condition which we seldom have in our homes today, so we must be certain to water the plants thoroughly, not just on top. Daily watering is not necessary, but daily inspection is. A rap on the pot which gives out a hollow sound indicates dryness. Never pour water over the foliage or it will be sure to burn (turn brown) under the heat of the window. It is best to use a small spray to remove the dust.

For Ferns, palms and rubber plants, mild soapsuds, used every ten days, instead of plain water will do a better job. Always protect against direct sunlight when wet. When the earth packs hard, take a dinner fork and cultivate around the plant as you would your outdoor plants. This allows the roots to breathe. Never use plant food either dry or liquid form on dry soil. Water first, then fertilize.

These suggestions are a basic few and apply to most house plants. Only one, the African Violet does not like water on its leaves, so don't spray them. Always water the African Violet from the bottom or place it in a saucer of water.

I sincerely wish a Happy Thanksgiving to all my readers — MARI GOLD.

TRAILBLAZERS HOLD FIRST ANNUAL BANQUET

The Wilmington 4-H Trailblazers Horse Club held their first annual banquet on Saturday night, Nov. 23, at Virginia Parker's Restaurant, Main St., Wilmington.

The twenty-seven members who attended were more than satisfied by the delicious meal. The Lions Club, (who financed materials for the clubs permanent practice and show ring), sent as their representative Frank Hagerty, who presented the following awards: Sr. Western Champion, Margaret Grassia; Sr. Western Reserve Champion, Warner Allen; Jr. Western Champion, Lloyd Carney; Jr. Western Reserve Champion, Susan Howell; Sr. English Champion, Sandra Supras; Jr. English Champion, Nancy Allen; Pet Pony Champion, Judith Carney; Pet Pony Reserve Champion, Arthur Robson.

The Trailblazers' leader, Mrs. Leo Dupras, is more than satisfied with the club's progress this year, and is sure that the horses and riders will improve even more for next season's competition. It is impossible to truck all the horses to the County Show so a score is kept of all local horse show posts and only the high point members are sent to represent the club. All members who have not been trucked were guests of the club at the banquet, so that all may benefit from the club's funds.

In turning the pages of our stamp album during the week, we found several very pretty stamps of Southern Rhodesia having views of a great waterfall that looks a lot like our mighty Niagara. Where is Southern Rhodesia?

How large are the Victoria Falls shown on these stamps?

On a large map of the world we find Southern Rhodesia is located in South Africa.

For this week, boys and girls, let's take our comfortable arm-chair trip to far away Africa, often called the "Dark Continent", to get a close look at this part of the world that was brought to our attention by our stamps.

The Victoria Falls are located on the Zambezi River, which flows southerly and easterly for a distance of about 1600 miles and empties into the Mozambique Channel, which separates the island of Madagascar from the mainland of Africa. The great cataract occurs near the middle from the mainland of Africa. The great cataract occurs near the length of the river, where it takes a sudden plunge of nearly 400 feet! This is over twice the drop of Niagara. The Zambezi is not quite a mile wide at this point, and there is not the volume of water there that there is at Niagara.

The famous explorer Dr. David Livingston discovered the falls in 1855 and gave it the name of Victoria Falls in honor of his sovereign Victoria, who was the queen of England at that time.

A railroad bridge, completed in 1905, spans the gorge just below the falls. This is shown on another stamp which we may discuss later.

Since there are no great centers of population nearby, the Victoria Falls have not as yet become the famous place for honeymooners and tourists as have our Niagara.

This natural wonder was nicely shown in the movie "Cinerama No. 3", as the airplane circled to give the travelers a view from all sides.

Southern Rhodesia is one of several British Colonies in South Africa. It has two provinces, Matabeleland and Mashonaland, with a total area of 150,333 sq. miles.

The capital and largest city is Salisbury.

The population is about 1,750,000, mostly natives, but about 80,000 whites or Europeans.

British type money — pounds, shillings and pence, is in use.

The chief products are corn, potatoes, tobacco, fruits, gold, asbestos and chromite.

Southern Rhodesia has issued fourteen stamps picturing the famous falls, in five sets from three different angles. These stamps, as postage payers and message bearers, let the world know of this natural wonder.

To give the stamps eye appeal and therefore make them more attractive, some of them have been issued in two colors.

For the collector of stamps showing waterfalls, there are many other stamps from other countries, also, that show local cataracts for their main design.

Another stamp journey next week.

This is the thrilling story of the patron Saint of the Americas, portrayed against a background of the splendor of the ancient Aztec civilization.

It was on Dec. 9, 1531, that the Virgin Mother appeared to a peasant in Guadalupe in Mexico, and has since then blessed the American continent by her protection.

The proceeds from the performances will be used by the Holy Name Society for the children's annual Christmas party. Admission is 15 cents for children, and 50 cents for adults.
